

MDSAD 2.22 PROCEDIMIENTOS DE VUELO
MDSAD 2.22 FLIGHT PROCEDURES

- | | |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. Debido a la existencia de una zona prohibida (MDP-4) correspondiente a la Base Aérea de San Isidro, localizada a 4NM al NW del Aeropuerto Int'l José Francisco Peña Gómez, con un radio de 3NM centrado en las coordenadas 18°30'14"N 69°45'42"W, desde la superficie hasta UNL, los virajes a la izquierda inmediatamente después del despegue por la Pista 35 quedan prohibidos. 2. No obstante, en caso de ser necesario maniobrar al NW del campo por razones de emergencia, deberán seguirse las instrucciones del ATC. 3. Se prohíbe maniobrar al oeste de la pista 17/35 en circuito de tránsito para pista 17 con básica a la derecha. | 1. Due to existence of a prohibited zone (MDP-4) Due to the existence of a prohibited zone (MDP-4) corresponding to the San Isidro Air Force Base located at 4NM of the NW of the José Francisco Peña Gómez Int'l Airport, with a radius of 3NM centered in the coordinates 18°30'14"N 69°45'42"W, from the surface to UNL, left turns immediately after takeoff Runway 35 are prohibited. 2. Nevertheless, ATC instructions must be followed in case of operating to the NW of the field for emergency reasons. 3. Prohibited maneuvering west of runway 17/35 in the traffic pattern for runway 17 with right basic turn. |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

MDSAD 2.23 INFORMACION ADICIONAL
MDSAD 2.23 ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

EN PREPARACION

TO BE DEVELOPED